ARMY IN FINAL PRACTICE FOR NOTRE DAME BATTLE

Light Position and Fast Signal Drills Take Up Cadets' Time—Eichenlaub Will Not Start.

GAME AT CAMBRIDGE

Cornell to Play Last Home Contest. Talbott to Lead Yale Squad-Outcome of Navy-Fordham Clash Uncertain-Middles in Condition.

WEST POINT, N. Y., November 6. he Army took its final practice this atternoon in preparation for the Notre Dame game to morrow. The workout was light, consisting of a position drill and a fast signal practice.

The Notre Dame team arrived at noon, and worked for an hour in secret practice this afternoon. Coach Harper said that Ray Eichenlaub, star full back, would not start to-morrow, and Finnegan, his other crack back field man, was left at home.

The Army will likely be without the services of Oliphant, McEwan and Meacham, a trio of headliners, all of whom are on the hospital list.

in the East finds the Tigers of Princeton camped within three miles of their crimson foe. The Tigers are spending the night at Auburndale, while the Harvard eleven is at the country club in Brookline.

The Harvard men returned to the club this afternoon and a signal practice was indulged in. Mahan, Logan and Hardwick spent considerable time practicing punting. The squad is in fine fettle. Mahan is in the pink of condition, from all reports, and his return to the back field will put new life into the eleven.

Pennock will start the game, and the line will be greatly strengthened by the husky guard.

Hardwick, at the right wing, will boister up that side of the line to a higher state of efficiency. His kicking will also be a big asset, but Hardwick's big play is his ability to get down under Mahan's kicks, provided the latter is doing the punting. Weston, who played centre against Michigan, will not be able to start the game, and his place will be taken by Bigelow.

The advance guard of the Tigers arrived this morning under the supervision of "Snake" Evans, the Tiger star of a score of years ago. The party consisted chiefly of the backfield men. They were joined by the remainder of the squad who arrived later and departed for the Woodland Park Hotel at Auburndale.

The backfield men visited the stadium and spent the afternoon in practicing punting and throwing the ball to each other. Diggs and Law were the men that did the punting, while Tibbot spent the major portion of his time loafing around the forty-yard line punting dropkicks over from that vicinity. From all appearances Tibbot is some kicker "He afternoon in Phillipi, because of his smashing line plunging so far this week, will get a chance at full back some time during the game.
